

Corporate Volunteering Recommended Organizations

The following organizations have proven to work well with corporate volunteers, and can normally accommodate groups. There is no guarantee that a specific type of work will be available on a specific day. Contact the organization for details!

BackPack Beginnings

This organization delivers child centric services to feed, comfort and clothe children in need. BackPack Beginnings serves over 6,00 children annually, by stocking school food pantries and providing back packs of food and comfort items to children in need.

Michele Alvarino, 336-709-9649 or office@backpackbeginnings.org

City of Greensboro Parks and Recreation Department

Greensboro loves it's parks, and our parks need some love! Also, many recreation centers need help with programing for children, people with disabilities and seniors.

Alex Zaleski, 336-373-7507 or Alexandra.zaleski@greensboro-nc.gov

Community Housing Solutions

Ramp-a-Thon and Paint the Town are just two programs you can get involved with! Other opportunities include minor home repairs. This opportunity requires a half day commitment

Community Engagement Coordinator, 336-676-6986 or gbrown@chshousing.org

Corporate Volunteering Recommended Organizations

Habitat for Humanity of Greater Greensboro

Habitat hosts “Community” days on all their homes, so members of the community and smaller groups can work on a Habitat House without making the large commitment to build the entire home.

* This opportunity requires a full day commitment on a Saturday*

Chris Tippens, Manager of Volunteer Engagement , 336-707-8050

ctippens@habitatgreensboro.org

LIFESPAN

LIFESPAN Creative Campus-Guilford is a non-profit day program for adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities. Activities include: working or building raised beds, helping to plant or weed in the garden. Maintenance work on the walking trail, painting rooms, cleaning walls. Installing chair rails on wall, updating cafeteria, painting parking lot lines.

Leah Askew, Development Specialist: 336-852-1495 x 3403, lparks@lifespanservices.org

Out of the Garden Project

“Food and Hope for Every Child”. Out of the Garden provides bags of food for Guilford County School children at risk of going hungry over the weekends. They also run mobile food pantries that go into Greensboro’s food deserts. Groups help assemble bags in the warehouse or go out on Mobile Food pantries.

Don Milholn, Executive Director, 336-430-6070 , don@outofthegardenproject.org